

Policy Committee

The Board of Education's Policy Committee is charged with policy development and the responsibility of recommending District policy changes to ensure compliance with state and federal laws, mandates and guidelines.

Members

Karen Belanger, Committee Chair and BOE Member

Kelly Smith-Powers, BOE Member

Jennifer Boyle, BOE Member

Brian Monahan, Superintendent

Sheryl Goffman, Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum, Instruction and Assessment

Other administrators, faculty, and staff members as necessary

Committee Charge

- Review policies in the Rye City School district Policy Manual as part of the BOE's continuous effort to update and monitor District policies.
- Review the Code of Conduct annually.
- Review and update policies as necessary to address emerging issues and meet changes in state and federal laws, mandates and guidelines.

Meeting Schedule

The Policy Committee meets monthly.

Technology Committee

The Technology Committee of the Board of Education meets to discuss the use of technology within the Rye City School District.

Members

Blake Jines-Storey, Committee Chair and BOE Member

Katy Keohane Glassberg, BOE President

Karen Belanger, BOE Member

Sheryl Goffman, Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum, Instruction and Assessment

Kaitlyn Sassone, Instructional Technology Coordinator

Representatives of the following stakeholder groups:

- Principals
- Classroom teachers
- High School students
- Community Members

Committee Charge

- Initiate a cohesive vision for the use of technology within the Rye City School District.
- Evaluate potential technologies for use in the District and make recommendations to the Superintendent.
- Discuss and recommend professional development opportunities for teachers and administration.
- Review the Technology Plan, if needed.

Meeting Schedule

The Technology Committee meets four times a year.

11/10/2016, 1/19/2017, 3/16/2017, 5/25/2017